

Presidents Message May 2022

We welcome all our PVA members, visitors and guests to both of our Gatherings in Sundial's East Social Hall, Thursday 12:00 pm, April 21st and May 19th. The May Gathering may be changed to a social event in the club room. You may bring a snack to share with others for our Gatherings. Water, coffee or tea available.

May is almost here, Snowbirds are on their way to another home for the summer, and we will see them again in October. We have summer classes scheduled, including workshops in Watercolor, Peg's Paint In, in July at no cost to participants; bring your lunch. Classes or workshops are all on the website, so please check the web calendar on your computer or smartphone if possible for more information. Newsletters will also be on vacation in June, July, August, and perhaps September.

This summer, our club room is being renovated by RCSC on the door side with new counters and cupboards flowing into a corner desk that jets out as our current desk does. It replaces the old desk. The counters will have overhead cabinets with corkboards on the doors replacing the bulletin board with the upper cabinets, which will be a lot more storage for us. The club's business will not be interrupted, and the club room will not be closed. The doors for the supply room have been removed, so the space flows better, and we have easier access to the library and storage.

We will have a social gathering in the club room on June 16. It is social only, no meeting or agenda other than socializing with friends and fellow artists. We are unsure if it will happen throughout the summer; it will be up to the members; otherwise, there will be no gatherings until October 20, 2022.

We also have a chair for the Fall Arts and Craft Festival this fall and a chair and co-chair for the Spring Palo Verde Show. So the bottom line is to create, create and create some more for these two shows.

All in all, we are moving forward and have much to look ahead to in the future.
